

Welcome to Kerala

"Julie has been organising small group trips to Kerala for over 15 years so when we arrived at our retreat we were greeted warmly and promptly, then taken to our individual cottages to settle in to paradise. The Ayurvedic experience is one I would highly recommend to anyone interested in an exotic holiday, which will revive and restore your mind, body and soul" ~ Anne D.

"On the brink of mid-life crisis, and needing to step off the hamster wheel of life for a moment, I searched for a holiday that would not only tick the box of an exotic location, but one that would also revive my mind, body and soul in the process. Boy, did I find what I was looking for in Kerala on the southwest coast of India." ~ Wilamina F.

The Ayurveda/Kerala Story

Ayurveda is a 5000 year old form of traditional healing that incorporates meditation and yoga practices as important elements within this natural healing modality. Its foundation is the holistic rebalancing of your whole being - your physical self, your mental self, your spiritual, emotional and physiological self - through various modalities such as treatments, food that is medicine for your body, yoga, meditation, pranayama (yogic breathing) and much more.

It is through its authentic delivery that we receive the magical healing elements that will allow us to release what no longer supports us and to bring into our life whatever we desire. Whether this be good health, emotional stability, joy, light heartedness, happiness, peace or self love.

Julie Baker, founder of Journeys of the Spirit, discovered a very special Ayurvedic retreat in Kerala, India in 2002. After 16 months of extensive research and a visit to several other retreats in Kerala, this one retreat not only ticked all the boxes, but it has become the foundational retreat for Journeys of the Spirit.

Over the years, the owners of this magnificent property have closely worked and collaborated with Journeys of the Spirit to create an even deeper, authentic representation of Ayurveda for our journeyers. Because of this collaboration and understanding that we are wanting the best quality version of Ayurveda so you can enjoy its maximum benefits, we have exclusive inclusions and packages available.

Julie Baker - Founder of Journeys of the Spirit

Julie Baker's 37 year career in travel and tourism has spanned a broad spectrum of roles. Working her way up from simple beginnings in Perth, Sydney and Europe led her on many daring adventures. Returning to Perth in the late 80's, she then became the Managing Director of Genesis Travel for over 10 years. In this role, Julie established very loyal and diverse corporate and leisure clientele.

Quietly happening in the background, Julie's personal interests have always included a commitment to health and wellbeing of mind, body and spirit. Passionately involved in yoga, meditation and spirituality for many decades, her personal journey has guided her on a quest for a more balanced and meaningful life. Journeys of the Spirit evolved from marrying Julie's wealth of insights gained through culture and inspiring locations across the globe, with her desire to have these deeper, more personal journeys easily accessible and enjoyed in authentic, comfortable surroundings. Her vision in the creation of these very personal and special experiences is that they may touch your heart, support and empower you in a deep and long lasting way.

Julie will be guiding her 17th retreat in Kerala in March 2019.
